SECOND DISTRICT.

San Jacinto and Polk counties: Polk the returning county.— James E. Hill. of Livingston, Polk county, was born in Davidson county. Tennessee, November 4, 1847; came to Texas and located in Polk county, his present residence; received an academic education, and commenced the practice of law in 1871; entered the Confederate army in 1861 as a private—commanded company G. 2nd regiment, Walker's Division; was a member of the House of Seventeenth, and re-elected to the Eighteenth Legislature November, 1882, without opposition.